HERALD BOWLERS ARE READY FOR OPENING

Printers Will Roll Ducks on Rathskeller Alleys, Starting October 5.

Everything is in readiness for the open-ng of the third season of The Washinging of the third season of The Washington Herald Bowling League. The season will start on Thursday, October 5, at Schneider's Rathskeller Alleys, at Eighth and E streets northwest.

The four clube which make up the league will all roll on the same day. The eague will all roll on the same day. The schedule this season calls for seventytwo games, while the teams this year are made up of five players instead of six, which was the case the two previous sea-

Last season the Jenson team landed the honors after a heated race, which was not decided until the closing weeks. The players have been shaken up this season and the men placed on the various teams according to the averages made last season. Each team this year is carrying four veterans of last season, while each carrying one new member of the league. The officers for the season are: President, E. A. Hawk; secretary and official scorer. C. D. Deming; treasurer, C. P.

The rosters of the teams for the season are as follows: Casions—Capt. F. W. Switzer, W. Byer-ley, C. P. Johnson, E. A. Hawk and E.
